

Robert Hoover

Robert Verdon Hoover, 70, Provo, died after an extended illness Sunday, Oct. 28, 1984, at Orem.

He was born Feb. 1, 1914, at Provo to Webster and Ruby Holdaway Hoover. He married Sylvia Bourne Aug. 9, 1933, at Heber City.

He was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and was an Elder in the Provo 15th Ward. He worked in the dairy business for Challenge Cream & Butter Association; he served as branch manager in San Jose and San Diego, Calif. Before retiring in 1973 and moving to Provo, he lived in Glendale, Calif. for six years, serving as Southern Division Director for that company.

Robert Hoover

He is survived by his wife of Provo; three sons: John Robert Hoover, Watsonville, Calif.; Gary Alma Hoover, Normal, Ill.; David Moyle Hoover, Mammoth Lakes, Calif.; six grandchildren; and one brother and two sisters: Wendell C. Hoover and Melba Miller, both of Provo; and Jeannie Bennett, Fillmore.

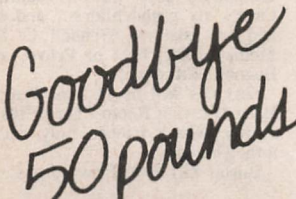

Services will be 11 a.m. Thursday in the Berg Drawing Room Chapel, 185 E. Center, Provo, where friends may call 9:45-10:45 a.m. Thursday.

Burial will be in Provo City Cemetery.

Enron School

hope we can have a commitment from the parties by then," Crockett said today. He noted that the property owners would be responsible to prepare the buildings for occupancy.

A lawsuit parents of students threatened to file in reaction to negative things said in public meetings about their children is on the back burner, said Lorraine Smith, one of the alternative school parents.

Goodbye
50 pounds